Notice to Desaccratic Clubs.

The Democratic Clubs of Anderso County are, by resolution of the Executive ce, requested to meet on Saturday the 8th day of May, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention, which meets in Anderson on the 22nd of May, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Democratic Convention, and for the election of officers for the Democratic party of Ander-son County for the ensuing term. These meetings are also requested to discuss the question as to whether the majority or plu-rality vote in nominating County candidate shall prevail in the next primary election, and to send delegates to the County Convention prepared to act on this question. The meetings are very important, and it is can cetty hoped every member of the Clubs, who can do so, will attend these meetings and unite in sending representative delegates to the coming Convention. The Clubs will meet at the time indicated above at the following places, to-wit: Anderson at Anderson C. H., Belton at Belton, way at Neal's Creek, Brushy Creek at Cedar Wreath School House, Centreville at Centreville Mills, Corner at Moffattsville, Flat Rock at Flat Rock, Fork No. 1 at Farmer's Store, Fork No. 2 at Maj. County Chairman

The Hadical County Convention In obedience to the call of W. R. Parker, County Chairman, the Republicans of this County met in Convention at Anderson on last Saturday for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Republican Conven-tion, which met in Columbia yesterday to elect delegates to the National Convention, which meets in Chicago.

At about 11 o'clock the delegates, 35 or 40 in number, all colored, gathered at the Greeley Institute, and after they had been pretty generally and thoroughly collogued and juggled with by Parker and Pat Kirkland, assembled in the Institute and was called to order by Parker, who stated that there was a considerable difference of opinion as to where the meeting should be held, whether in the Court House, which had been tendered, or at the place where they were then assembled. He said that he was himself in Avor of holding the meeting in the Court House, but as there was a good many of the delegates who were opposed to going to the Court House and thought they should hold forth in the Institute, he would submit the question to the delegates for them to decide, which he did, and which resulted in an almost unanimous vote in favor of the Institute, there being only two delegates voting to go to the Court House This vote showed very clearly that the re-port circulated on the public square a few minutes before the delegates gathered at the Institute that the Convention would be held in the Court House, and that the meet ing appointed at the Institute was only for the purpose of arranging the details for the white people and keep them from attending the Convention. There was not a single reason given in the Convention for holding the meeting in the Institute, except that some of the delegates were afraid of being worried by the Democrate.

After the settlement of this matter, Parker read the call for the State Convention and also his call for the County Convention, giving the number of delegates each pre-cinct in the County were satisfied to, and then stated that the first business was to elect temporary officers, which was accordingly proceeded with. Sam. Johnson was igly pr nominated and elected temporary chairman and G. D. Williams' temporary secretary. Williams declined the election, and Jehu Thomas was chosen in his stead. Johnson, who was found not to be in the house, was Lawrence Walker time to put in an objection to elevating Sam. to the chair on the ground that he would be more valuable to the Convention out of the chair. This brilliant idea seemed 'o take, and a motion was then made by Menry Kennedy, who was not a member of the Convention, that Parker be made temporary chairman, which was enthusiastically received and adopted.

It was then moved and seconded that a committee of five be appointed on credentials, but before the motion was submitted another motion was made to appoint an assistant secretary. This created some confusion, and one of the learned ones arose "to a pint of order," and submitted that tr , motions could not be considered at the same time, and that it was the duty of the chair to put the motion appointing the committee of fire on credentials first, wherever Prof. (?) G. D. Williams, who seems to know toore about parity gentary law than even Prof. Mell, arose and stated "for the information of the chair" that ac-Parker and examined as to whether he was a delegate or not, after which the committee retired to make up their report. During the absence of the committee, E. an

Johnson and Parker were colloguing nearly the entire time, and seemed intent on some matter of vital importance. After an absence of about half an hour, the committee returned and reported thirty-five delegates present, all of the precincts in the County being represented except Hones Path, Wil-liamston, Sandy Springs, Craytonville and the Corner. Parker here again raised the question of going to the Court House, and said that if the colored people got afraid to hold their County Convention in the Court House they would get afraid to go to the polls and vote. Considerable confusion here provailed, and jawing was here indulged in pretty generally, but very few expressions could be caught. It was evident, however, that they did not intend to rescind their for mor vote, and after the lapse of a few minutes order was restored, and the report of the committee was received and adopted. The temporary officers were then made the permanent officers of the Convention and Parker, with characteristic pomposity, an-nouaced the Convention duly organized and ready for business.

Sam Johnson then moved to elect John R. Cochran the first delegate to the State Convention, which was unanimously adopted. Lawrence Walker moved that a committee of five be appointed to nominate the remaining three delegates, when Parker re-marked: "As God moves in a mysterious way, I put the motion, but I cannot see why one delegate should be elected one way and the other three another." This witty remark brought down the house, and after everybody had laughed until they were satisfied the motion was submitted and carried by a large majority, but it "appeared" to Parker that the "Nos" had it, and he so decided. A delegate by the name of Fisher then nominated Parker as a delegate, who was unanimously elected. Jere Cherry from the Fork nominated Sam Johnson and Cape Skelton nominated Pat Kirkland, of Spartanburg, both of whom were elected. This completed the delegation, with which every-body seemed perfectly satisfied, and after the election of Mone Lee and Henry Kennedy as alternates, a motion was made to adjourn, but, as Sam Johnson objected to it, Parker did not submit it to a vote.

A petition to the President for the appointment of Col. Cochran as United States Mar-shal for the District of South Carolina was read to the Convention, when it was decided that it should be signed by the delegates and forwarded to Washington. The petition de-clared that Col. Cochran was a staunch Re-publican, that he had done more to reform Bowling Green at Bowling Green, Broada the Republican party in South Carolina than any other man in the State, that his record as a legislator during the six years he represented Anderson County in the General Assembly of South Carolina would com pare most favorably with that of any Senator or Representative in the State before or since the war, and that his appointment as Marshal would give universal satisfaction to the citizens of the entire State, regardles of political opinions. Sam Johnson then introduced a resolution highly complimentary of Senator Hampton, and pledging the Republicans of Anderson County to support him for whatever office he may offer for in the future. Sam denominated his resolution " Peace and Harmony," but instead of promoting peace and harmo ny it created confusion and aroused the ire of a few of the most faithful, among whom was Parker, who declared that he could not anderse the resolution and would not abide by it if it was adopted. This remark seemed to satisfy Johnson, who declared that whatever Parker said was law with Auderson Radicals, and that he would withdraw the resolution. We endeavored to secure the resolution for publication, but were in-formed by one of the secretaries that it was aken from his desk by some one, he did not know whom. The request was made in the presence of Parker and a number of others, and we discovered at the time that Parker especially did not want the resolu-tion printed, which, no doubt, fully explains its mysterious and unaccountable disappear ance. But Johnson was bent on having a resolution of some kind passed, and after his "Peace and Harmony" resolution was withdrawn, offered another, which provided for the appointment of three persons, who, with the County Chairman, were to constitute a board of counsel for the Republican party of this County. But this resolution met with no better reception than the other, and so displeased Parker that he declared that if it was adopted he would at once resign. He did not believe in forming cliques and that was what the resolution propos to do. It would take from him his power as County Chairman, and would render ineffective any efforts he might make to carry the party successfully through the coming campaign. Sam then took the floor, and was beginning to score it to Pasker pretty everely, when Willis Redmond moved to adjourn. The motion was seconded, and when put to the Convention was unanimously adopted. This, of course, put a stop o Sam's speech, and seemed to give Parker great deal of pleasure.

The Convention was accordingly declared adjourned, and the delegates, after talking among themselves for some time, dispersed.

The Methodist Sunday School will have celebration at this place on Ithe 8th of May, at which time Prof. Duncan, of Wofford College, will deliver a Sunday School address, and a Temperance lecture in the evening. An effort will then be made to which. no doubt, will meet with cordial support. With no barroom and a Temperance Lodge, Honea Path will be particularly dry.....A number of our citizens, both married and single, made a fishing party on last Saturloudly and repeatedly called for, but as the day, and spent the day on Broadmouth was a little tardy about coming in, it gave Creek catching the finny tribe, &c. Other duties prevented your correspondent the pleasure of attending, but from what I can learn the day was greatly enjoyed by all present, and although the party was small Anderson, Belton, Williamston and Laurons were represented. The representative from Anderson were the most successful in atching fish as well as larger game Our farmers are getting along nicely with their work, many of them are now almost through with their planting, and we notice several fields of cotton up beautifully..... The destruction of the peach crop is no enterprising citizens. Besides a splendid residence, he has just finished a neat sidewalk from his residence to the business portion of the town, and is now busily engaged getting out lumber for two store-rooms..... Mr. C. E. Harper is also busy making brick for three store-roo is...... In the near future we expect to see Honea Path doing a large "for the information of the chair" that according to parliamentary law the last motion made before a body should always be the first considered. This seemed to picase Parker, who nodded approval to what Williams had said, and proceeded in accordance with his decision. Henry Harrison was then elected assistant temporary secretary, after which the motion to appoint the committee on credentials was adopted, and the following constituted the committee, viz.: Anthony Webb. W. R. Redmond, Mose Lee, Davis Williams and James McDowell. On motion of Sam Johnson, the chairman of the committee was then called up by Parker and examined as to whether he was proceeding to person a large trade, and all that is necessary to bring the trade and all ery fourth in the Baptist, Hones Path will, therefore, he supplied with preaching every VIDETTE.

Golden Wedding.

Ms. Epiron: On Tuesday, 26th inst., we had the pleasure of assisting in celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of Col. T. J. and Mrs. Pickens' wedding. There were some thirty-five or forty persons present, consist-ing of children, grand-children, old neigh-bors and friends.

The drawing-room was very testefully decorated with flowers, and on the walls hung pictures of the Colonel and lady, as they were in their younger days. Over the pictures in the form of an arch, inscribed in letters of gold, was, "Thy children will arise up and call thee blessed." Parker, the Republican County Chairman, says that the Republicans of this County are solidly in favor of Grant as the nomines of their party for President. This is owing no doubt to the fact that both Parker and ex-Senator Cochran are Grant men, who, it is well known, exercises supreme control over their deluded followers in this County.

A great strany persons have been at a loss to know what business brought Pat/Kirkland, a well known Republican understrapper, to Anderson last week, but if they will conly read the list of delegates elected to the Biate Convention by the Republicans of this County on Saturday they will readily understand it. He is at present, we believe, a cilizen of Spatualburg, and of course didn't seek the honce of representing his Radical brethren of Anderson in the Convention—it was a free-will offering most joyfully made.
